

Equal Opportunities Policy

PK Construction (Lincs) Ltd recognises that it is essential to promote a workplace which is fair, inclusive and provides equal opportunities to all employees. This policy sets out the organisation's position on equal opportunities. Together with guidance regarding the company expectation that all employees, will be considerate and professional at all times.

The objective of this policy is to ensure that no one individual should experience less favourable treatment, lack of opportunity or discrimination due to their 'protected characteristics' of gender, race, ethnic origin, disability, age, nationality, sexuality, religion or beliefs, marital status or social class, as detailed in the Equality Act 2010.

Discrimination can happen in a variety of ways; some are very obvious while others are more subtle. Indirect discrimination may take the form of putting rules or arrangements in place that apply to everyone, but which put some with a protected characteristic at a disadvantage. (An example may be the requirement to attend work on a religious day)

Discrimination of any sort will not be tolerated within the business or as part of its supply chain. Nor will the company tolerate the harassment (linked to a protected characteristic) of anybody. A situation which violates an individual's dignity or creates an offensive environment for that person will not be tolerated. Nor will the victimization (treating someone unfairly because they've complained about discrimination or harassment) as detailed in the company's Workplace Bullying & Harassment Policy

Statement of Policy

It is the policy of PK Construction to ensure that no job applicant or employee receives less favourable treatment than any other on the grounds of, gender, race, ethnic origin, disability, age, nationality, sexuality, religion or beliefs, marital status or social class.

There will be no discrimination when it comes to employment terms and conditions, pay and benefits, opportunities for promotion & training, redundancy and dismissal. The organisation is committed not only to its legal obligations but also to the positive promotion of equality of opportunity and treatment in all aspects of the business.

PK Construction recognises that adhering to this equal opportunities policy maximises the effective contribution that all individuals can make to the benefit of both the individual and the organisation. The company recognises the benefits of having a diverse workforce who are employed solely on their ability.

Recruitment and Promotion

PK Construction has a very low staff turnover, so the need to recruit new employees is infrequent. However, when there is an advertisement for the role, it will give sufficiently clear and accurate information to enable potential applicants to assess their own suitability for the post. Information about vacant posts will be provided in such a manner that does not imply a preference for any particular group of applicants.

All specifications and qualifications for a role will include only requirements that are necessary and justifiable for the efficient undertaking of the role.

All applicants will be considered primarily on their suitability to fulfil the role. Where it is necessary to ask questions relating to personal circumstances, these will be related only to job requirements and asked to all candidates.

All vacancies will be circulated internally.
